BUILD YOUR CAREER IN CLINICAL RESEARCH

Graduate Certificate in Clinical Research
Department of Quantitative Health Sciences
John A. Burns School of Medicine

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Ideal for medical trainees, gap-year students, health care providers, allied health professionals, and other clinical health professionals

15 graduate credits in two semesters full-time or at your own pace part-time

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS
- Clinical research and trial design
- Statistical data analysis
- Clinical research protocol development
- Ethical conduct of clinical research

POTENTIAL CAREERS
- Physician Researcher
- Clinical Research Coordinator
- Clinical Trials Manager
- Regulatory Associate
- Research Study Monitor

CERTIFICATE COURSEWORK REQUIREMENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>BIOM 640 - Intro to Clinical Research</td>
<td>3 cr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>QHS 600 - Biostatistics Concepts for Clinical Researchers</td>
<td>3 cr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>or QHS 601 - Fundamentals of Biostatistics</td>
<td>3 cr.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BIOM 660 - Mentored Capstone Research Practicum</td>
<td>2 cr.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

7 credits of elective courses

Please visit our website for more information on the Graduate Certificate in Clinical Research:

GradCTR@hawaii.edu
qhs.jabsom.hawaii.edu/education/graduate-certificate

Application Deadline for Fall Semester Only: July 15