Graduate Certificate in Clinical Research
Department of Quantitative Health Sciences
John A. Burns School of Medicine

BUILD YOUR CAREER IN CLINICAL RESEARCH

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Ideal for medical trainees, gap-year students, health care providers, allied health professionals, and other clinical health professionals

15 graduate credits in two semesters full-time or at your own pace part-time

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS

- Clinical research and trial design
- Statistical data analysis
- Clinical research protocol development
- Ethical conduct of clinical research

CERTIFICATE COURSEWORK REQUIREMENTS

BIOM 640 - Intro to Clinical Research (3 cr.)
QHS 600 - Biostatistics Concepts for Clinical Researchers (3 cr.)
or QHS 601 - Fundamentals of Biostatistics (3 cr.)
BIOM 660 - Mentored Capstone Research Practicum (2 cr.)
7 credits of elective courses

POTENTIAL CAREERS

- Physician Researcher
- Clinical Research Coordinator
- Clinical Trials Manager
- Regulatory Associate
- Research Study Monitor

Please visit our website for more information on the Graduate Certificate in Clinical Research

qhs.jabsom.hawaii.edu/education/graduate-certificate

Application Deadline for Fall Semester Only: March 1

QHCR@hawaii.edu